(v) In the case of Agricultural Produce Market Committee – Secretary.

(vi) In the case of any other local authority such office bearer or officer thereon as the State Government may, by notification, specify in this behalf.

(1-B) The Principal Officer of the local authority shall, after the local authority has considered the matter in the special meeting called under sub-section (1), take necessary action to rectify the defects or irregularities and within four months of the receipt of the report.

(1-B)(a) Send to the Director, intimation of having remedied the defects or irregularities pointed out in the report; or

(b) Supply to the Director explanation in regard to such defects or irregularities as the local authority may wish to give.

(1-C) The Principal Officer of the local authority finds any difficulty or has any doubt in understanding the report; he may seek clarification thereof from the Director in such manner and within such period as may be prescribed. The Director may for the purpose of furnishing the clarification sought by the Principal Officer of the local authority summon the Principal Officer of the local authority requiring him to present himself at such time and place and with such records as he may direct or he may, if he thinks it fit to do so, inspect the record at the place at which it is kept.

(2) On receipt of such intimation or explanation the Director may in respect of all or any of the matter discussed in his report—

(a) Accept the intimation of the explanation given by the Principal Officer of the local authority and withdraw the objection; or

(b) Direct that the matter be re-investigated at the next audit or at any earlier date; or

(c) Hold that the defects or irregularities pointed out in the report or any of them have not been removed or remedied.

(3) If the Director holds that any defects or irregularities pointed out in the report have not been removed or remedied, he shall, as soon as may be on receipt by him of the intimation or explanation of the Principal Officer of the local authority concerned under sub-section (1-B) or on the expiration of the period prescribed under sub-section 1-C or in the event of the Principal Officer of the local authority failing to give such intimation or explanation, on the expiry of the period of four months mentioned in sub-section (1-B) but not later than one year of the receipt of the report, frame charges against the alleged delinquent persons stating the amounts to which the defects or irregularities relate and forwarded a copy of the said charges to the State Government as well as to the Principal Officer of the local authority; and

(3-A) (a) If the Principal Officer of the local authority or the Executive officer of the local authority as the case may be, fails to take action under sub-section (1) of sub-section (1-A) or sub-section (1-B) or sub-section (1-C) he shall render himself liable for framing of charges and the Director may, on the expiry of a period of four months mentioned in or sub-section (1-B) frame charges against the Principal Officer of the local authority or the Executive officer of the local authority, as the case may be, in addition to framing of charges against the alleged delinquent person or persons under sub-section (3)”.

(4) Nothing in this section shall preclude the Director at any time from bringing to the notice of the State Government, for such action as the State Government may consider necessary, any information which appears to the Director to support a presumption of criminal mis-appropriation or fraud of which in his opinion deserve special attention or immediate investigation.

Director to charge illegal payment or loss caused by gross negligence or misconduct and incorporation of charges in administration report of local authority.

11. (1) If after giving the person concerned a reasonable opportunity for showing cause to the contrary, the Director is satisfied that the loss, waste or misapplication of any money or other property of the local authority, is a direct consequence of misconduct on the part of the delinquent person, or gross neglect on his part, or that the said person being a party to making or authorizing the making of the illegal payment, the Director shall, by order in writing direct, such person to pay to the local authority concerned before a specified date the amount together with interest thereon, as may be found just and equitable to reimburse the local authority for such loss, waste or misapplication of its money or property; provided that no order of charge shall be made under this Act-

In respect of any item included, or which ought to have been included in, but was omitted from, any account for any period prior to five years of the date when the report under section 8 was sent to the Principal Officer of the local authority or of the date on which it comes to notice of the Director, whichever is earlier:

Provided further that liability of a legal representative of a deceased delinquent person shall be to the extent of the property of the deceased, which has come to the hands of such legal representative.

(2) All charges made under sub-section (1) shall be incorporated in the next administration report of the local authority concerned and such report shall be available for inspection by the public.

(3) If the person to whom a copy of the order is furnished under sub-section (1) refused to receive it, he shall be deemed to have duly received it on the day on which the copy was refused by him that the powers under section 10 and 11 of the Adhiniyam vested in the Director, shall also be exercised by the Deputy Directors and Assistant Directors as well to the following: -
